

Zoe Girl, Little Did I Know

I had an angel that sat on my shoulder, seems like everybody's got one, I had the devil waiting on standby, for when I wanted to have some fun thought that I was living forever, I thought that my smile would get me in, never felt the wind that was coming, never thought the party would end no, no, no, no...

[Chorus]

little did I know that you were all I needed little did I see until you opened up my eyes
little did I know that one prayer could reach you
little did I know that you even cared I had my daddy wrapped 'round my finger I never made my momma cry nothin but smiles on the outside but all the while living a lie If you ask me am I going to heaven, I said you know I've been a good good girl I'm gonna spend all my money on makeup and a find a boy who will buy me the world

[chorus]

little did I know that you loved me before I even met you I didn't see beyond myself but I couldn't fight forever because you are so easy to trust and now we play together my life has just begun

[chorus x2]
