

Zoe, Morning Watts

Morning,
don't keep me waiting,
it's hard to go on with what's in my mind.

Don't break,
don't send me back again,
why don't we get in the heart of the rainbow?

You've been fading away,
I know you've been fading,
and your heart, girl,
it's drowning in an ocean of falling tears,
and that ocean is rolling to the end of the dream.

Morning,
don't keep me waiting,
it's hard to go on with what's in my mind.

Don't break,
don't send me back again,
why don't we get in the heart of the rainbow?

You've been fading away,
I know you've been fading,
and your heart, girl,
it's drowning in an ocean of falling tears,
and that ocean is rolling to the end of the dream.

You've been fading away,
I know you've been fading,
and your heart, girl,
it's drowning in an ocean of falling tears.

You've been fading away,
I know you've been fading,
and your heart, girl,
it's drowning in an ocean of falling tears,
and that ocean lost into the end of the world.
