

Zolita, For the Both of Us

It was us against the world and the world won
I'd say 6 years was a good run
Every single the sky you were the sun
But it started to rain while we were

Planning forever, a house in the desert
And I don't even like it there
But I could've learned to if it would have made you
Stay mine

You had me and I had half of what I thought I wanted
Sorry that I couldn't keep the promise

Even though you're the one who broke me first
I found a way to let go of the hurt
It looks like you've got enough for the both of us

Even though in the end you got so dark
I don't have a trace of hate in my heart
It looks like you've got enough for the both of us
For the both of us

No you never thought I'd be the one to move on
Before you and I felt like a traitor
Falling for somebody who only wanted the best for me
Somebody who never wanted to change me

Keep on making me the villain if it makes it better
I should hate you too but I could never

Even though you're the one who broke me first
I found a way to let go of the hurt
It looks like you've got enough for the both of us

Even though in the end you got so dark
I don't have a trace of hate in my heart
It looks like you've got enough for the both of us
For the both of us

Even though you're the one who broke me first
I found a way to let go of the hurt
It looks like you've got enough for the both of us

Even though in the end you got so dark
I don't have a trace of hate in my heart
It looks like you've got enough for the both of us
For the both of us
