

Zolita, Ruin My Life

I think I'm gonna crash my car
Cause I can't keep my eyes on anything but you
Run away with no regard for the rest of the world
Cause the rest of the world isn't you
Everything at once wouldn't be too soon

Putting all my eggs in one basket
It's so dramatic
And probably problematic

I wanna fuck off every one of my plans
Fall out with every one of my friends
Burn all of my bridges
I'd kill my career long as long as you're right here I
Wanna sneak out of every party
Stop trying to be somebody
Would you come be my downfall?
One look at you and I'd lose it all

I wouldn't mind
Wouldn't mind if you ruin my life
Wouldn't mind if you ruin my life

I think I'm gonna break my phone and
Let everyone else I know forget me
You're the only one who gets me
Like when we jumped into the ocean,
It was so cold, I was holding my breath
Under shades of blue
Right there that was the moment I knew

That I would fuck off every one of my plans
Fall out with every one of my friends
Burn all of my bridges
I'd kill my career long as long as you're right here I
Wanna sneak out of every party
Stop trying to be somebody
Would you come be my downfall?
One look at you and I'd lose it all

Baby I know if I died tomorrow
You'd be the last thing I think about
When I go out

I wanna fuck off every one of my plans
Fall out with every one of my friends
Burn all of my bridges
I'd kill my career long as long as you're right here I
Wanna sneak out of every party
Stop trying to be somebody
Could you come be my downfall?
One look at you and I'd lose it all
