

Zombina And The Skeletones, Lost Boys

We're lost boys never going home
We're lost souls born to be alone
But there's something you should know
We're the ones who make it so
But our time is coming around

I bet you work real hard for the money that you got
It takes a whole lot of crime to line these pockets
I bet you work real hard for the money that you got
It takes a whole lot of crime to line these pockets

All the lost boys and the girls that are losing it...
Go work it out!

I know a girl, she's one of a kind
But the poor little thing, she's going out of her mind
There's something you forgot - there's a reason why she's lost
Cos baby she don't want to be found

I bet you work real hard for the money that you got
It takes a whole lot of crime to line these pockets
I bet you work real hard for the money that you got
It takes a whole lot of crime to line these pockets

All the lost boys and the girls that are losing it, go work it out
All the lost boys and the girls that are losing it, go turn it up
All the lost boys and the girls that are losing it, hear what I say
All the lost boys and the girls that are losing it - takedown G.R.A.!!
