

Zonaria, The Armageddon Anthem

Exterminate!
The slaying of the heavens
Reflecting your evil
Now it can't be undone
Infesting the nations
And raping their faith
They struggle for nothingness
You're about to lose control
As every creation
Disintegrating
There's none responding
All will return to dust
No shelter for the living
And none for the dead
'Cos by your blood you swore
For the world to be no more
Armageddon - The end of all life
I'm chained to the ground
As the skies comes crashing down
Embracing world termination
Facing the final annihilation
My efforts in their creations
But soon it all will fall...
