

Zonaria, The Last Endeavour

Fight!

I recall your first revelation

The words that ignite my damnation

A last but relieving endeavour

To dig my own grave

And fade away forever

I would not receive my redemption

My soul was gone and mind was black

Committing a secret allegiance with fire

'Cos nothing in this world

Compares to what I desire

Your soul, my will

Temptation, to kill

I undergo what you don't know

You're in the freak-show

So now you know the battle is on
