Zucchero, Blue

(Zucchero - Bono)

No petrol in the car No pennies in the jar How did we get this far, baby.

No moon in the sky No roof to keep us dry Looks like rain tonight.

I got a sinking feeling Coming over me I got a sinking feeling I tried to paint a picture A picture through the clouds for you.

Green Your smiling eyes Red 'Cause I made you cry Grey These rainy skies Tomorrow will be

Blue Stay love Stay tonight These rainy skies Tomorrow will be blue

No caffeine in the coffee No sugar in my tea Just watching the TV With the sound down No radio on No tune to the song And the words are wrong.

Your fingers tapping To the rhythm of the rain Your fingers I tried to paint a picture A picture through the clouds for you.

Green Your smiling eyes Red 'Cause I made you cry Grey These rainy skies Tomorrow will be

Blue Stay love Stay tonight These rainy skies Tomorrow will be blue

I got a sinking feeling Coming over me I got a sinking feeling I tried to paint a picture A picture through the clouds for you.

Green Your smiling eyes Red 'Cause I made you cry Grey These rainy skies Tomorrow will be

Blue Stay love Stay tonight These rainy skies Tomorrow will be blue

Oh child Don't say goodbye These rainy skies Tomorrow will be Blue

Stay love Stay tonight These rainy skies Tomorrow will be Blue
