

Zucchero, She's my baby

Another sun as the day is leaving
Will set in my soul when I'm alone
For those who hope and (now)
Keep on believing
One love is calling for everyone
And I believe again in every promise
Faith is returning, she's my baby
And I can live again for all tomorrows
Faith is returning, she's my baby
When day is fading, I will remain
To love you better and lose my fears
Born on this morning, soft as the rain
Roses are falling through my tears
Goodbye to misery and empty hours
Faith is returning, she's my baby
And I can live again cos love will save me
Faith is returning, she's my baby
Lei lo fa come avesse sete
Now I know
Sulla mia pelle lieve come neve
There's a sun somewhere for everyone
Faith is returning
