

ZUZA BAUM, River

You won't catch me running
Cause I'm gone with the river flow
Where it's gonna take me I don't really know yet
My lullaby's the water swaying all over my feet
I'll become a river once I stop harming my needs
I've got that feeling inside my head
That I've been here, I am breathing in old debt
I've got feeling down my soul
That I know you, I did fall in love with you in this mad world
It happened, came so softly
As a blink of tearing eye
Line is broken
I've got feeling inside my head
That I've been here, I am breathing in old debt
I've got feeling down my soul
That my strength, my broken heart did save from fire this mad world
I flow the river as love flows in my veins.
I am becoming the river as my blood becomes love
Płynę rzeką tak jak miłość płynie w moich żyłach
Staję się rzeką tak jak moja krew staje się miłością
