

Zvuki Mu, Crazy Queen

You say nothing
You just look and stay silent
Look and stay silent
You don't go out
You never go out
You're here all the time
Here all the time
Just don't thrust yourself upon me with your endless meals
Just don't thrust yourself upon me with your endless pleadings
You my crazy queen
Take my pencil
And draw our house for them
It doesn't look much like a hut
Dance on the table for them
Like I thought of you
Like I thought of you yesterday
