

Zwan, Heartsong

come in
make yourself at home
i'm a bit late
hate to make you wait

but heart songs
are still on my mind
there's never the time to write down these lines

how can you say
that i don't need you
just be sure
no more, no less
let love confess to you
what you must do

come on
let's hit the road
i'm up to my tricks
i know they seem cold

but heart songs
are all that i am
i use the same words
to say the same things

how can you say
let love confess to you

let love confess to you
what you must do

what you must do
