

Zwan, What Have They Done To Me?

What have they done to me
To the air that I breathe and all I see
Diseased and abused and alone
Tell me what have they done to me

They took everything I had
And crushed it all into dust
Erased all my names so I would seem
So lost
So lost
So lost

I pulled myself from my woman
To wander through the night
I'm a long, long way from emptiness
So step aside

Am I to feel alive
Am I to feel alive
Am I to feel alive
But I nearly died
Am I to see the light
Am I to see the light
But I cried
For so long
So long

What have they done to me
To the birds that sing, yeah the simple things
I held all my curses
I can't seem to rest
But it's alright
It's alright

They took from me all that one could take
My children
My loves
My orchards of tears
It's all been borrowed so we must say
They sit in the kingdom of light

And now you know how one can be
As free as one could wanna be
Cause time won't let you walk away
Time won't let you be afraid
So don't be afraid
For too long
Too long

Am I to walk alone
Am I to walk alone
Am I to walk alone
But I nearly died
Am I to see the light
Am I to see the light
But I cried
Am I to walk alone
Am I to walk alone
Am I to walk alone
But I'm almost home
I might seem alive
I might seem alive
But I nearly died
I might seem alive

I might seem alive
I might seem alive
But I nearly died
Am I to walk alone
Am I to walk alone
Am I to walk alone
But I'm almost home
Yeah, I'm almost home

I might seem alive
I might seem alive
I might seem alive
But I nearly died
Yeah, I nearly died
So long
