

Zwan, Whatever, Whenever

whatever may come whatever may come, i'm here suitably wrong, impossibly numb, i'm here remember the good times we had last year whatever, whenever
i'm still here
whatever, whenever

nothing more than honesty could lie nothing more than ever to get by

i'm not strong enough to need you i'm strong enough to love
'cause i'm not strong enough to need you i'm just strong enough to love

whatever may come, have no fear faithfully stung, undutifully done, i'm here remember the promises made last year whatever, whenever

whatever, whenever you want
