ZZ Top, My Mind Is Gone

I have to go to my parole-boy To remember just who I am One thing else I don't enjoy is Forgetting her monogram She electrifies my physical mass She Really Turns Me On

My mind is gone My mind is gone

She quite simply wrecks me She just tears me apart She screws me up and skewers me She made it quite an art She guts me like a hollow-point She really turns me on

My mind is gone My mind is gone

Yeah, Billy I know what you mean

It's the smell of the dress
That made my mind a mess
It's her chokin' throat
Really gets my goat-tee and amen
Yes, indeed
She makes my head and heart bleed
Been so long since I knocked some off

My mind is gone My mind is gone My mind is gone My mind is gone

Tell me about it
